

Ned Kelly - from Iron-outlaw to Iron-icon

These authentic 1/3rd scale Kelly Gang helmets are of limited supply. If you have any interest in acquiring a set of four, then this is your last chance as they won't be available any more at 2010 prices and I only have limited sets. They stand around 240 mm high on red gum bases. They were modeled on the original and no others are comparable. Once the moulds are no longer functional they won't be replaced in my time as lost wax casting moulds, I know because I am the maker, and unlike most other Kelly related memorabilia these days, these miniatures are 110% totally Made in Australia.
