

Senior Constable Anthony Strahan

on his leaving Rutherglen

Dear Sir.

We the Justices of the Peace, Members of the Legal Profession practising before the Court of Petty Sessions Rutherglen, and Residents of the District cannot allow you on your appointment to the important Border Station of Wodonga to depart without an expression of our high Esteem and Respect for you and an acknowledgement of the efficient and praiseworthy manner in which you have discharged the many and difficult duties entrusted to you whilst amongst us.

During the period extending over 14 Years that you have been stationed at Rutherglen you have proved yourself to be conscientious and fearless in the performance of your duties and while displaying your zeal and activity in enforcing the Law have rendered an ever ready and willing assistance to those requiring its protection, and by the upright and honorable conduct of your Office have won the Respect and Esteem of all.

In taking leave of you, it is our hope and trust that your future may be as honorable to yourself, and as beneficial to others, as your past has been, and that together with your wife and Family who will yourself have earned and carry with them the affectionate Esteem and Regard of all who know them, you may long be spared to enjoy a continued and deserved prosperity.

Yours in sincere friendship
